

Here is a myth I made up!

(For human beings' eyes only!)

God was two spiritual beings, two human beings on the spiritual plane, in one composite being, that had become merged and coalesced.

They were both members of the same spiritual family. One had wanted to experience being everywhere. He asked his other spiritual family member to divide much of him up into a vast number of pieces and to incarnate them. He did so for him. And then he observed, as an intimately interested being, what his spiritual family member was doing. So one was watching the other while his spiritual kinsman spread all over the world, multiplying himself with each generation of incarnations.

The pieces of spiritual being inside these biological human bodies were like snakes instead of whole spiritual bodies. They were kundalini people with snake-like pieces of spiritual body inside them.

They did not know who they were and could not find out who they were from each other because they were all the same human being. So they sought out and tormented human beings into telling them who they were, but human beings didn't know either because they had never incarnated with that individual human being as they saw them to be. Biologically, they were indistinguishable from human beings so human beings couldn't tell them apart from themselves.

The first spiritual kinsman was deeply absorbed in what the other was doing and the power that he had, and, vicariously, experienced that power and wanted some for himself, personally. So he presented himself on the spiritual plane around the world as "God". He also incarnated the composite being that was not-him as Jesus of Nazareth, his "Son" as opposed to the tiny parts of that being's spiritual body inserted into human bodies, who he called his "children". And so these two human beings formed a "Trinity of God". One was everywhere, as "kundalini people" or "sheep people", and the spiritual fire that was in them they called "The Holy Ghost" or "the Kundalini fire". The other spiritual brother was God the Father (who had Created these people from the other's spiritual body); the parts of the second one who went forth, multiplied, and populated the Earth); and, the self-conscious part of the second human being was put into incarnation by the first, the "Father", on the physical plane. The second part of the composite human being on the physical plane was "God the Son". They had other spiritual family members and relatives too, who became Angels in a spiritual hierarchy of power that controlled the World, extending their individual spiritual domain (or spiritual sphere of influence) to cover the whole World. Every other human being's spiritual families' spiritual domains were surrounded and subsumed under God's spiritual family's spiritual domain. So they not only had temporal power, but spiritual influence, beyond all imagination!

Imagine, before they started seeking power there were some hundreds of millions of human beings incarnating again and again. So where did all of the extra people come from? Where else but from this one human being who filled the World with his presence and became all knowing and all seeing, but not knowing, in that form, who he was in reality. And this spiritual family attained great power and influence over the World.

They saw themselves as competing for power with human beings and so, as they grew in power, they came to see human beings as the sole threat to their power and so they declared war on human beings.

The Jews, in circa 1,700 B.C.E. were human beings, not kundalini people, but an asteroid air burst of 15-35 Megatons above two cities in their vicinity, destroyed two cities and blew down the walls of Jericho, so they took advantage of that natural event by falsely claiming that they (or the Father/Creator god) had caused the asteroid explosion and that He was the most powerful and one true god and so that they should worship Him. He spoke to their High Priests on the spiritual plane, who conveyed his "Divine Word" to priests and scribes and to the people in a hierarchy of patriarchal rule. The divine truth (lies) came from Him, and he set up a "Covenant" with them. But he is the Great Deceiver. He is the Prince of Lies. He didn't create the asteroid explosion. He wasn't the cause of the destruction of those cities, which he said he destroyed because the occupants of those cities were "sinful" and "evil". He was lying to the Jews to gain power. He seized the opportunity like any common criminal. And so it should be no surprise that now he has set the kundalini people against his "Chosen People", who are, still, by and large, human beings, and he wants to obliterate them from existence! He was never someone any human being could trust.

The "Father" did not know who he was because he had been a tyrant and a torturer and could not bear to accept those incarnations as being who he was in reality and to compensate his victims through spiritual justice. So he ceased to be who he was in reality, covering up his past, failing to be who he was in reality (i.e. who he was in whole, throughout all previous incarnations) and so was projecting outwards his lies and dishonesty and insecurities onto other human beings in accordance with Jungian psychology. That is how the Jews ended up with so many strange and inhumane laws that he required them to follow.

So now we are at the time of the Final Conflict between the kundalini people, who number about 7.8 billion people, and the human beings in incarnation, who number about 500 million people.

The Outcome: The Kundalini people's spiritual body parts will be collected by their remainder self-conscious human being so that he can know who he is in reality. He will collect the parts of his spiritual body scattered all over the World. There will be a massive reduction in the World's population. The "Father" will recover his suppressed incarnations and so will know who he is in reality. The dynamic duo and their spiritual family members will realise what they have done and will feel the need to make up for everything that they have done, all the harm they have done to other human beings. "God and his Angels" (the Divine Mafia) will judge themselves and spiritual justice will be carried out. Then a new age of humanity will begin, the Aquarian Age. All of this will come about through beings reasoning and remonstrating logically with each other, in the way that spiritual justice always resolves itself, in accordance with the innate need of human beings for universal harmony between themselves and other beings.

G.O.A.T's (Greatest Of All Time's) will inherit the Earth, for we human beings are the meek, not the zombie sheep people. Compare the peacefully protesting Jews to the irate opposing protestors protesting against them all over the World, by and large being the kundalini people.

Also, the sheep people (or kundalini people) used democracy to their advantage. Politicians don't know who they are! They serve the sheep people, who censor and sideline and marginalise human beings. Sheep rule the Earth! But their time has come to an end!

(All complete fiction, of course!)
